Louis Kern is an associate in the Banking & Financial Institutions practice group. Louis's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, regulatory compliance, asset sales and financial technology. With a background in financial and securities regulation, Louis brings a practical approach to counseling his clients and helping them navigate the industry.

Prior to joining Godfrey & Kahn, Louis worked as an Associate Principal Examiner with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). While in law school, he served as the comments editor of the University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform.
